

News Release – Museum Opening Times

December 13th 2016

The Heath Robinson Museum in Pinner opened to critical acclaim in October. It has brought new heart to the community, is a “destination spot” and is fast becoming a creative hub for the surrounding area with lots of activities for children and adults.

The opening times over Christmas and New Year are as follows:

The Museum will open Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays until Christmas when the Museum is open on Thursday 22nd and Friday 23rd December. A lot of people are making their way to the Museum to buy Christmas presents and cards at the Museum Shop - there is a 10% promotion on products in the Makers Art range. This coming weekend of 16th to 18th December is expected to be busy!

The Museum and shop will then be open the weekend of 6th to 8th January (the last chance to see the Heath Robinson at War exhibition) and then be closed for building and “snagging” work until 19th January. Some activity workshops will continue over this time – please look at the Heath Robinson website www.heathrobinsonmuseum.org for more information.

On 21st January the new Special Exhibition, The Brothers Robinson will open, displaying work by the much-talented Heath Robinson brothers.

The Museum was a popular destination for Santas doing the St. Luke's Hospice Santa Dash on December 11th.

The Museum is looking forward to lots more children visiting in the run-up to Christmas with its own “elves” activities and Christmas decoration workshops.

We look forward to many new activities and lots of action at the Museum in 2017.
