THE HEATH ROBINSON MUSEUM

YOUR STYLISH NEW CORPORATE VENUE

A significant addition to the national arts, educational and cultural landscape, the Heath Robinson Museum project is delivering:

The first purpose-built museum in Greater London for over 40 years

The only museum dedicated to Heath Robinson, hosting the largest collection of his original works

In addition to the permanent exhibition, a rolling programme of themed Special Exhibitions

For schools, colleges, children and families: a comprehensive programme of formal and informal learning, activities and workshops

SPONSORSHIP AND CORPORATE EVENTS

Together with the bright and modern function room/gallery at West House, overlooking the lake, the Heath Robinson Museum complex offers a complete corporate and community support resource.

Companies and community organisations can host exhibitions and events, business and training workshops with full catering facilities and the option of a museum Private View.

To discuss corporate exhibition sponsorship or a Private View for your clients or staff, please contact the Museum Trust Chairman
