THE MAKER'S ART

As well as offering a range of products reflecting Heath Robinson's work, the shop sells a selection of one-off items, designed and handmade by acclaimed, locally based artisans and artists.

The Maker's Art is a contemporary range of artworks, ceramics, jewellery and wood that complement the imagination and enchantment of Heath Robinson's work. The makers change every six months, - this is now our eighth group - adding more valuable creative partnerships and creating a distinctive decorative art marketplace at the Heath Robinson Museum.

Daphne Carnegy is a professional potter, designer and writer. An apprenticeship in France and further training at Harrow School of Art led her to specialise in the 'maiolica' technique of low-fired ceramics. Her studio is in West Hampstead where Daphne produces painted, tin-glazed earthenware, which combines an awareness of historical precedents with her passion for plants and birds.
